N.B.—The reason of so few discharges of bills of sale, &c., being registered is mainly owing to the difficulty of proving the certificate of satisfaction as required by the Act (No. 8 of 5th Vic.), viz., the acknowledgment by the mortgagee of his signature to the certificate of satisfaction or proof of execution by said mortgagee by one of two witnesses upon affidavit before the Registrar-General or his deputy. For this reason the greater portion are allowed to lapse.

* Loan raised by Colonisation Commissioners. † Aid from Imperial Government. ‡ Aid to Revenue by issue of Bond and Treasury Bills.
§ Immigration ceased in these years.

NOTE.—Prior to 1851, all remittances to the Land and Emigration Commissioners were carried to account by the Colonial Treasurer as sums expended on immigration, and the receipts in England by the Land and Emigration Commissioners were never included in the accounts of the Colony—an adjustment of accounts was, however, made in the year 1853.

* In this and following years the amount in this column is increased by the special grant for Free Reference Library; it also includes (always) an amount received from the Government to be expended on matters connected with the country institutes, as per the following column.
† Special Grant of £2,000 for purchase of pictures at the Melbourne Exhibition, for the National Gallery, included in this amount.
‡ An alteration has been made in the financial year, which will terminate in future on June 30, instead of September 30, therefore the circulation of books, the receipts, and the expenditure in this line are for nine months only.
‖ This is only an estimate, as there was no library examination in 1883.

* Where asterisks occur the information has not been furnished.

[1] For later information respecting the population of three of the colonies, see foot-notes to Table I., post.

[2] The Revenue and Expenditure of Victoria in all the years specified, and of Queensland for the seven years 1876 to 1882, are for the twelve months ended June 30th. In other instances the information relates to the years ended December 31st. For later information respecting Victoria, see footnote (2) to Table IV., post.

[3] For information respecting the Public Debt of Victoria to the 30th June, 1884, also respecting the "Accrued Sinking Funds of New Zealand," see footnotes 3 and 4 to Table V., post.

[4] In making returns of lands sold, and amounts realised therefor, the colonies have not adopted a uniform principle. The figures for South Australia showing the extent granted and sold in 1883, for the first time, exclude land of which the purchase was not completed. Those showing the amount realised represent the purchase-money of land alienated in fee-simple during that year. See footnotes to Table IX., post.

[6] Including beans and peas, except in the case of New South Wales.
[7] Including land in fallow in most of the colonies. See footnote 3 to Table XI., post.

[8] The figures for South Australia from 1876 to 1882 include the balance due for lands sold on credit. The figures of the years prior to 1876 do not express the full amount for which such lands were parted with. See footnote 4, ante.
[9] In the New Zealand returns the land under permanent artificial grass, which in other colonies is classed with green forage, is not considered as under cultivation. See footnote 7 to Table XI., post.

NOTE.—In consequence of persons leaving by sea without their departure being recorded, there is no doubt that, in most of the colonies, the estimated population, as given in the table, is higher than the actual population; and although it may be possible, in the case of a continental colony, that the loss by sea may be made up by overland immigration at the expense of its neighbours, yet, until some better system of recording the departures by sea is adopted, the figures for the insular colonies and for the whole of Australia and the whole of Australasia will always overstate the truth.

[1] On the 30th September, 1884, the estimated population of Victoria was 952,836, viz., 505,467 males and 447,369 females.

[2] On the 30th June, 1884, the estimated population of New South Wales was 895,533, viz., 495,789 males and 399,744 females.

[3] On the 1st August, 1884, the estimated total population of South Australia was 315,337.

NOTE.—The immigration and emigration in this table is by sea. No official account is, or can be, taken of the number of persons going overland from one colony to another.

[1] The figures in these columns understate the truth. Many persons leave all the colonies by sea without their departure being noted.

[2] In consequence of the immigration returns being defective, as stated in the last footnote, the figures in these colonies are too high.

[3] According to Imperial returns, the number of persons who left the United Kingdom for the Australasian colonies in 1883 was 73,017, and the number who returned to the United Kingdom from these colonies was 7,155. The excess in favor of departures was thus 65,862.

[1] The amounts in this column are made up of Customs duties, less duties on the export of gold, drawbacks, &c.; also of excise duties, including licences imposed for revenue purposes; duties on bank notes; stamps, other than those for fees of office; legacy, succession, and probate duties; property and income taxes; and any other impost, payable to the General Government, levied distinctly as a tax; but excluding fees, licences, and charges for special services rendered.

[2] According to a preliminary statement made up in the Treasury, and distributed to Members of the Legislative Assembly, the figures for Victoria during the year ended June 30th, 1883, were as follows:—Revenue raised by taxation, £2,308,873; from Crown lands, £719,312; from Railways, £2,079,248; from other sources, £826,808; total revenue, £5,934,241; estimated total expenditure, exclusive of £10,100 for redemption of Treasury Bonds, £5,766,813. The estimated mean population of the same period was 930,940; therefore the revenue per head was £6 7s. 6d.; the expenditure per head was £6 4s. 1d.; and the taxation per head was £2 9s. 8d.

[3] The figures for Tasmania are subject to future revision.

[4] The proportion of the revenue of New Zealand derived from taxation has been only estimated.

[5] In calculating the amounts for Victoria, the mean population during the year 1882-3 (904,646) has been taken. For the other colonies the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

[2] In calculating these results the figures of public revenue given in Table IV. have been used.
[3] On the 30th June, 1884, the Public Debt of Victoria was £28,325,112. The estimated population at that date was 945,703, and the approximate revenue of the financial year ended with that date was £5,934,241. The amount of indebtedness per head was thus £29 19s., and the debt was equivalent to 4·90 years' revenue.
The Accrued Sinking Fund of New Zealand amounted on the 31st December to £2,715,094. The net liability was therefore £28,670,317.

[1] The figures in these columns are intended to represent the lands of which the purchase had been completed prior to or during 1883, as the case might be. The figures for New South Wales and Tasmania, however, denote instead the land sold conditionally, in addition to lands sold by auction, &c.; including also land granted without purchase—the extent so granted in the former colony in 1883 being 2,534 acres. The purchase-money of the lands sold conditionally in New South Wales during 1883, viz., 1,621,948 acres, has been computed at £1 per acre.

[2] This column includes the land in process of alienation under deferred payment system, as per next column.

[3] Included in the previous column. See note 2.

[4] Of this extent about 16,000,000 acres belong to the Maoris, or to Europeans who have purchased from them.

[5] Exclusive of the extent estimated to have been forfeited for non-fulfilment of conditions, &c.

[6] In the case of New Zealand the "cash received" is given instead of the purchase-money.

NOTE.—The State system of education is compulsory and un-denominational (or secular) in all the colonies, and Western Australia is now the only colony which grants assistance to denominational (private) schools. Public instruction is free in Victoria, Queensland, and New Zealand; but fees are charged in the other colonies, although they are partially or entirely remitted in cases where the parents are unable to pay them. For a complete account of the educational systems of the various colonies, see Victorian Year-Book 1880-81, pp. 431 to 459.

[1] Including 1,072 pupil teachers, but exclusve of 553 work-mistresses.

[2] These figures have been calculated from the proportions of the sexes between the ages of 5 and 15 at the last Census, as the information was not supplied for the present return.

[3] Exclusive of assisted schools, of which there are about 20.

 The Agricultural Statistics in most of the colonies are collected in the months of February and March of each year. The present returns are for those months of 1884. In calculating the rates of tillage per head, the population at the 31st of December, 1883, has been taken.

[1] Including beans and peas, except in the case of New South Wales.

[2] In addition to crops sown for the purpose of being cut green for cattle, this column contains the following areas laid down in permanent artificial grass in the colonies named:—Victoria, 281,903 acres; South Australia, 22,603 acres; Western Australia (not returned); Tasmania, 152,248 acres.

[3] In the returns of some of the colonies this column embraces land in fallow as well as land under crop. The following are the areas in fallow included in the returns of such colonies:—Victoria, 174,607 acres; Queensland, 10,233 acres; South Australia, 453,637 acres; Tasmania, 24,140 acres; Western Australia, 3,851 acres; New Zealand, 184,198 acres.

[4] Including 572 acres under turnips, carrots, parsnips, cabbage, and beet, which produced 5,276 tons; 1,056 acres under mangel-wurzel, which produced 18,906 tons; 1,235 acres under onions, which produced 6,977 tons; 1,325 acres under tobacco, which produced 9,124cwts.; 283 acres under chicory, which produced 1,626 tons; 1,758 acres under hops, which produced 15,717cwts.; 2,686 acres under grass seeds, which produced 41,964 bushels, &c.

[5] Including 316 acres under cotton, which produced 70,020lbs.; 47,898 acres under sugar-cane, of which 26,667 acres were productive, and yielded 36,767 tons of sugar; 228 acres under arrowroot, which produced 390,964lbs.; 399 acres under orange trees, which produced 489,344 dozen; 526 acres under bananas, which produced 593,914 dozen; 236 acres under pine apples, which produced 121,438 dozen.

[6] In Western Australia the extent under green forage and other tillage was not returned.

[7] In the figures for New Zealand the land under permanent artificial grass, amounting to 4,734,646 acres—of which 2,274,491 acres had been, and 2,460,155 acres had not been, previously ploughed—is not entered as green forage, nor, with the exception of 73,997 acres, embracing some of the ploughed and some of the unploughed portion, the grass on which was mowed for hay, is included in the total area under tillage, as in the other colonies. Were the whole so placed, it would bring the land under tillage up to 6,146,946 acres, or to 11·36 acres per head of the population.

NOTE.—The following information respecting State education in Fiji has been given for 1883:—Number of schools, 2; number of teachers—males 2, females 6; number of scholars—males 130, females 139; fees paid by scholars, £205; net cost to State, £803; collected by school rates in Suva, £915; in Levuka, £1,924.

[1] It is believed by the Registrar-General of Fiji that the births, deaths, and marriages here given are less than those which actually occurred.

[2] The total area alienated at the end of 1883 was 312,400 acres. The amount realised by the State was only £25,477, which, however, represents the price of but a small proportion of the acreage alienated. The majority of the grants issued were for lands acquired by whites and others previously to annexation, and these received their titles at the nominal price of one shilling.

[3] In addition to the live stock referred to in th ese columns, 5,902 angora goats were kept on the islands.
